Sometimes at school, I get a wrong answer.

When I get a wrong answer, I feel mad and frustrated.

I want to tear up my paper or stop working. But it's okay to get a wrong answer. Everyone gets a wrong answer sometimes.

I can say "bummer" or "oh well." Maybe I will get a right answer next time. It's no big deal.

I keep working and soon I will get a right answer and feel happy.
At school, I am helpful to my teacher.

When my teacher asks me to do something, I say, "sure."

If I see my teacher holding a lot of books, I can ask her if she needs help. When we are walking out the door, I hold open the door.

If my teacher asks, "who will help me with this?" I walk over and say, "I can help."

When I help my teacher, she is happy. I like being helpful!
Sometimes at school, I don't know the right answer to a question.

I feel embarrassed or I feel mad. I wish I knew the right answer.

It's okay not to know the right answer. I say, "I don't know." It is better to say I don't know instead of getting mad.

When I say, "I don't know" my teacher will help me get the right answer.

I keep working and maybe I won't know other answers but it's okay.
Each day at school, I go to lunch with my friends.

Sometimes at lunch I do not have good behavior.

Sometimes I yell, get out of my seat, run around, or throw food. I need to always have good behavior at lunch.

At lunch time, I need to stay in my seat the whole time. I can talk to my friend but I can't yell. I need to keep my area clean.

When I follow the lunch rules, I have fun at lunch with my friends.
